7. Briefly describe the reason(s) why you were not able to take the course(s) at Citrus College: _____

8. Student Acknowledgement and Certification: I understand that Citrus College must be my HOME school of record for obtaining my degree, transfer or certificate. I must be enrolled in at least 6 units at Citrus College in order to become eligible to apply for this consortium agreement. The course(s) must be required towards the completion of my Citrus College major and verified by a Citrus College counselor. I am not eligible to receive aid for more than one repetition of a course (including an equivalent course from another college) that has been previously passed. Approved passing units from the secondary institution will be paid by Citrus College. Official transcripts must be received after the end of the semester from the secondary institution prior to any subsequent disbursements and will be used to calculate Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP). Courses taken at the secondary institution will be included in the quantitative component of SAP for units attempted. Students who drop units and/or withdraw from all courses are subject to "Return of Title IV" calculations and may owe a repayment. Read the financial aid policies on the financial aid webpage for full details.
